

THE GRAND PRIX TRADITION CONTINUES!!!!

"John Blanden's Climb to the Eagle and Southern GP" Friday 4th November 2022

While the Adelaide Grand Prix days are of the past, the magic memories remain. One of the most popular of the fringe events was the Climb to the Eagle held traditionally on the Friday morning preceding the Grand Prix.

The event commenced in 1985 and during the 11 Grand Prix years it attracted the likes of Formula 1 World Champions Juan Manuel Fangio, Sir Jack Brabham, John Surtees, Denny Hulme, Phil Hill as well as Stirling Moss and other champions. Among the cars that have taken place are some of the world's most valuable and rare sports and racing cars.

To commemorate those 11 years of the Grand Prix in Adelaide, the Climb to the Eagle continues to be run annually on the anniversary of the last "Climb" and in memory of Adelaide's great Grand Prix carnival. In 2004 it was named "John Blanden's Climb to the Eagle" in recognition of John's work in creating this event. After last year's run to Victor Harbor, the event is back including the optional Northern GP – via Blackwood and then continuing to the Vine Inn, Nuriootpa for lunch.

"Climb to the Eagle" has become a motoring classic and the public can see cars at the start at Victoria Park on the original pit straight of the grand prix track, and are encouraged to line the original route to Eagle on the Hill and to cheer the cars and their enthusiastic drivers and crew.

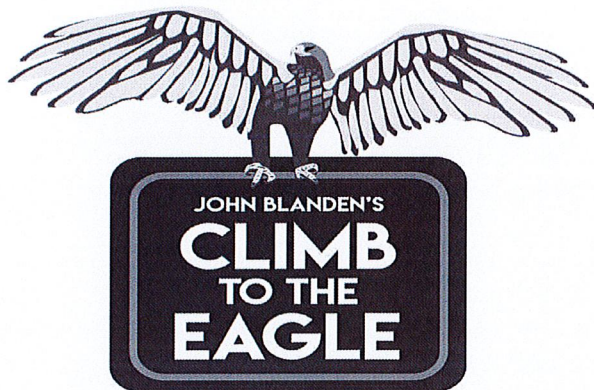

Here is the opportunity for any motoring enthusiast to be part of the experience. All cars are welcome however with emphasis on any vehicle with sporting heritage, including Bentley, McLaren, MG, Jaguar, Triumph, Austin Healey, Porsche, Ferrari, Holden Monaro, Falcon GT etc. All cars must be registered and road rules are adhered to at all times. At Victoria Park you will see over 200 sporting and collectable cars head for the hills.

This year's Climb to the Eagle has some differences to prior years;

- The start will be in front of the Victoria Park grandstand as the original start line area is currently seconded to SA Motorsport for Adelaide 500 purposes.
Tea, Coffee and breakfasts will be available from the adjacent Cafés.
- We will continue on to the Blackwood Football Club for morning tea where our celebrity guest speaker will talk about their close connection to the Grand Prix and the teams that competed.

Entries are on a first in basis, so please do not delay.

Chris Frost, John Blanden's Climb to the Eagle Chairperson.
